If God wanted April Grace to be kind to her neighbors, He should have made them nicer!

Growing up in the country is never easy, but it sure is funny—especially if you happen to have a sister obsessed with being glamorous, a grandma just discovering make-up, hippie friends who never shower, and brand new neighbors from the city who test everyone’s patience. From disastrous dye jobs to forced apologies and elderly date tagalongs, you’ll laugh ‘til you cry as you read the Confessions of April Grace!

Here are just a couple of April’s thoughts: On her sister, Myra Sue: “How anyone can be that dumb and still be able to eat with a fork is beyond me.” On senior citizen lovebirds: “What if they started smooching right at the table in front of God and everybody?”

In spite of all the loony characters in her life, April Grace is able to learn from her parents as they share the love of God—to even the craziest of characters!

This book is so cute, you can really just imagine April Grace sitting next to you talking to you and telling you everything in the book. This book is a great tween book for ages 8-12 (13). April Grace is someone you want your girls to be hanging out with she is sweet, funny, caring and a great person. I loved so hard in parts my stomach hurt. If you have a tween girl, going to have a tween girl or just love reading tween books grab In Front of God and Everybody you will be routing for April with every page turn. I love having a new tween book for my tween girl to read. I found out the same author has another book coming out in November we will be sure to grab it. This book is her first and it was a great debut book making you want more from her!

thank you booksneeze for sending this cute book for me to review.
